MILLARD HENNY

159-B

BROOKS, OREGON

FALL 1951

SPRING 1952

We invite your personal inspection of our nursery any time you are traveling Pacific Highway 99. Watch for our sign 10 miles north of Salem, 40 miles south of Portland.

Not only will you be able to see the newest in camellias and azaleas blossoming in our plantings, but will be able to select personally from a large stock of true to name, disease free, quality grown plants. Our selection of varieties will please the most discriminating.

Telephone: Gervais 2344

General Information

September 1951 — September 1952

We are adopting a new policy regarding shipping terms for the coming season. All quotations in this catalogue are f.o.b. Brooks, Oregon. This does not mean that our nursery stock has taken a price increase. You will notice actual price reductions on many items this season PLUS THIS NEW FEATURE—10% REDUCTION ON ORDERS OF $10.00 OR MORE. Packing and crating free. Unless stipulated otherwise, shipments will be sent parcel post c.o.d.

Cash with those orders to be shipped immediately, and 20% of purchase amount will be required to reserve plants for later delivery. All rooted cuttings will be shipped in June and July. Plants under the group headings and azaleas, rhododendrons and other shrubs will be sent upon receiving order.

Sizes quoted in camellias refer to height of plant—in azaleas they refer to spread of plant. Rhododendrons are graded according to height and corresponding spread,

Sizes and prices of any specific varieties in larger stock than listed will gladly be quoted upon request.

May we remind you to plant camellias, rhododendrons and azaleas only as deep as grown in the nursery. Addition of moisture-saving peat moss, deep watering during summer months, fertilizer after blossoming season, hand cultivation only, are suggestions to those unfamiliar with the growing of these plants.

Plant rooted cuttings in a shady spot using a good peat mixture and water freely during summer. By fall they can be moved to your desirable location.

Williamsii Hybrids

Again we encourage American gardeners to grow the newest in camellias, the Williamsii hybrids, J. C. Williams and Mary Christian.

Besides the fresh beauty of the flowers themselves, there are other characteristics making these plants so desirable. They are rapid growers, branching well. They bud young, abundantly and luxuriantly, even to the point of putting out axillary buds along the central stem. The hardiness of buds in zero temperatures and hardiness of blossoms in regard to bright sun is especially noteworthy. The blossoms have the tidy habit of falling intact and fresh, eliminating the period of brownness so common to the camellias we know.

Camellia J. C. Williams is full pink in bud and pale rose-pink when expanded. The petals, generally 6 to 8, each wavy and notched in the center, open widely to about four inches across and are centered with a tuft of prominent yellow stamens. First camellia in ten years to win a First Class Certificate awarded by Royal Horticultural Society in Britain.

Equally desirable Mary Christian is a deeper, brighter rose-pink. Its buds are beautifully long and pointed. In form the blossoms are similar to J. C. Williams, but remain more cup shaped when open. Petals may be fewer, neither as prominently notched nor as wavy.

GROUP ONE

The majority of the following camellias are field grown, with the exception of a few varieties grown in cans. In the event we are out of the exact size ordered, we may send next size but will not substitute variety unless suggested by the customer. If you are interested in larger size plants of any variety, please inquire. We will be glad to quote sizes and prices of any stock available.

Rhododendrons

This season we are offering some additional companion shrubs for your landscape plantings. Rhododendrons and Andromeda thrive in the same general growing atmosphere as do the camellias and azaleas and require the same care. We promise the same quality grown stock that you have known in our camellias and azaleas.

Plant evergreen shrubs that bloom!

Stars indicate official quality ratings. 4 stars denote top rating. Some varieties are too new to be rated.

DWARF RHODODENDRONS

The following rhododendrons are suitable for planting in rock gardens where space is limited. These plants are low and compact in habit of growth and usually grow less than a few inches a year. In the modern type home where windows extend from the eaves to a few inches of the ground, this type of plant is most desirable.

New Evergreen Azaleas

Of recent introduction, these Glenn Dale and Gable hybrid evergreen azaleas promise new pleasures for azalea gardeners. Among the varieties are those of exceptionally large flowers and unusual colorings. Best of all is their hardiness. One east coast grower reported, "They are taking 10° below zero and liking it." We know they have withstood the last three severe winters well here, not even showing foliage damage.

Also claiming much customer interest at the nursery are the recently introduced Japanese hybrid evergreen azaleas. Very hardy.
